END OF A RED NOSE

New Flesh-Colored Product That Heals and Hides Skin Imperfections.

A peculiar feature of poslam, a new skin discovery, is that it is naturally flesh-colored and contains no grease, so that when used on the face for the complexion, or for pimples, red noses, or any other inflammations, blemishes, or discolorations, its presence cannot be detected. It can be applied in the daytime, the natural color of the skin being immediately restored and the actual healing and curing process accomplished in a few days. It can be had of any pharmacist who sells pure drugs. Jennie Hamilton's Pharmacy makes a specialty of it. Fifty cents worth will answer the need of the troubled complexion or in curing ordinary cases of eczema. Itching stops at once.

Any one who will write to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 35 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York, can secure, by mail free of charge, a supply sufficient to cure a small eczema or to clear a complexion overnight and remove pimples in twenty-four hours.

MRS. HAWLEY SEEKS DIVORCE

Alleges That Husband Has Misconducted Upon Occasions.

Alice Lavina Hawley has brought suit in the Superior court for divorce against her husband, Charles F. Hawley, both being well known residents of Stratford. The couple were married June 30, 1896, at Stratford and have one boy, Elmer T. Hawley whose custody the mother desires. The suit is brought on three different charges. The plaintiff alleges, in effect, naming one Maggie Smith of this city as co-respondent. The alleged acts are said to have been committed between July 1st and Sept. 1st of this year. The plaintiff states that the defendant has been habitually intemperate for the past five years and has been guilty of intolerable cruelty towards her since July, 1898. She desires a change to her maiden name, Alice Lavina Bradley.

Helena R. Giersch of Canton has not found married life very profitable, for soon after she married Richard J. Giersch of Norwalk, on Sept. 19, 1907, she became very ill. She alleges. She brings suit in the Superior Court on the grounds of intolerable cruelty, and desires a change to her maiden name, Helena Giesche.

STILL WAITING FOR THE END

(Special from United Press.)
Duxbury, Mass., Sept. 24.—With only a heavy rainfall to console them for the absence of a world cataclysm, 300 members of "Latter Reign Saints" who gathered here expecting the end of the world at 10 o'clock this morning, are dazed at the blow to their faith and disappointed that they have not been snatched up to the clouds as their leaders foretold.

In their little chapel at Ashdod, five miles from here, the enthusiasts awaited the end of all things, praying and singing hymns. The morning with increasing fervor. Shortly before 10 heavy clouds overspread the sky and the most fervently waited moment was thought to be approaching when the crust of the earth would slide off into a vast abyss. But there would come no such thing. Slowly the minutes dragged by and when the prophesied hour had come and none of their dazed amazement was pitiful. Soon, however, their fanaticism faded. Some asserted that Christ would come before night but others declared there had been a mistake in the year and that the end would come on next September 24. No explanation of the failure of the prophesy to be carried out was given and they all settled to wait to see what the sign they still hope will come before the day is done.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

The following from the Greensburg (Penn.) Tribune is of local interest, recalling several prominent Bridgeporters notably former Councilman George Curtis who some years ago was a candidate in Democratic politics in the 2nd district:

"An interesting little romance culminated in Greensburg Sunday. The participants were all Bridgeport, Conn., people and the pleasant ending to the romance with its beginning in the home state some time ago, was selfishly devoted to themselves. Sunday, Miss M. Annette Cargain of Bridgeport, became the bride of Anton Hansen, a draftsman of the Kelly & Jones Co., Rev. Dr. Curtis of the Miles pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church performed the ceremony. The wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Curtis of Atlantic street who were Bridgeport friends of both Mr. Hansen and his bride. Miss Irene Curtis acted as maid of honor. Mr. Charles A. Skinner who with Mrs. Skinner were among the Bridgeport people present, was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Hansen will take an eight day trip at Christmas time, business preventing an earlier one."

MR. ROWEN WITHDRAWS.

PAY OR BURY YOUR BABY WAS ULTIMATUM

Grocer Straus Delivered to Robert Beatty, Who Later Punched Him.

CITY COURT BUSINESS

"No man has the right to take the law into his own hands" said Judge Foster in the city court this morning to Robert Beatty, of Railroad avenue who was charged with assaulting Abraham Straus, a storekeeper at 1033 Railroad avenue in his store yesterday because Straus said he would "make a funeral for Beatty's eight month old baby" if a bill of $1.69 which Beatty owed him was not paid.

Beatty said that his boy went to the store to get some groceries. The boy returned home saying that Straus said he "would make a funeral for the baby" if the bill was not paid. Beatty went to the store and had an argument with Straus. He claimed Straus hit him with a broom and he then hit back with his fist.

Beatty's boy who witnessed the fight said that the storekeeper fell to the ground after his father hit him. Beatty was sentenced to pay $2 without costs. The court admitted that there was some provocation but not enough to warrant the assault. Besides the fine Beatty was placed under the Probation Officer for 60 days. The trial of Angelo Bozech and Nicolio Mano who were arrested yesterday afternoon for assault and breach of the peace on the East Side was continued until Tuesday. Mano is under $25 bail while Bozech's bond is $100. The two men were working on a building on Reilly street. After an argument Bozech hit Mano with a piece of timber. A scuffle followed in which Bozech fell down a flight of steps to the ground. He was taken to the home where he now lies. The ambulance and patrol were both called to the scene.

Patrick O'Reilly was fined $10 and costs and sentenced to 20 days in jail for raising a disturbance and swearing near the corner of Fairfield avenue and Main street last night.

Leon Sparks of New Haven was fined $10 and costs for disturbing the peace in a drunken condition collected a crowd about him on Water street last night and was arrested by Police-man D. Ryan. He was fined $7 and costs. Harry Blake who was picked up by the ambulance at Park and South avenues last evening with a bad scalp wound and his leg on was fined $1 and costs. He said he was working on the Crane dock when a block hit him in the head.

August Rosanio who was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective Hackett together with another small boy John Miketo for stealing from the boot black stand under the viaduct at the railroad station, was discharged last evening after a warning to leave other people's property alone. Miketo was sent to Lakeview home. He is an epileptic.

ROOSEVELT KILLS FOUR ELEPHANTS

(By Staff Correspondent of the United Press.)

Nairobi, British East Africa, Sept. 24.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt now has a record of having killed four elephants. Camp followers who arrived at Nairobi to-day told of the killing of the third and fourth elephants by the Colonel who has now finished his hunting in the present location in the Kenia province and was expected to break camp to-day for the Gausa Nyiro river to the north.

Young Kermit has an elephant to his credit. He brought down a big bull on Monday and further added to his laurels as a big game hunter by killing a rhinoceros.

Roosevelt and Kermit will continue to hunt apart for the present as Kermit has left for Lake Hannington. They remain while the Colonel is in the Gausa Nyiro country.

SIR ROBERT BALL FAVORS DR. COOK

(Special from United Press.)

London, Sept. 24.—Sir Robert Ball, professor of astronomy and director of Cambridge Observatory, has at last become convinced that Dr. Frederick A. Cook discovered the North Pole. For several weeks Sir Robert was in doubt but he has declared that he believed Dr. Cook would not have the temerity to make such a claim had he not actually found the Pole.

"Pole observations could not stand a scientific investigation," declared Sir Robert today. "If I could see the doctor's instruments and his records it would not take long to decide beyond all question of doubt whether he reached the Pole."

"The certainty of exposure in the event that he is in error would, I think, deter any man from making false claims."

Sir Robert and Lieutenant Shackleton are now the only two scientists of worth in England who have come out in favor of Cook's claim that he discovered the North Pole. The doctor's discovery was a shock to English explorers, who counted on being the first to find the Pole.

Yosts and All-Stars

Ready for Two Games

Terry Rogers' All-Star team will play the Yosts Saturday and Sunday at Yost field, the games being called at 3:30. Manager Lynch of the Yosts said today that despite rumors to the contrary the two teams would be on hand and exciting contests could be looked for. Rogers has the pick of the city and he is satisfied that his aggregation will make the Yosts go as they have not been compared in the past if they expect to land the games.

Steamer Majestic Sails for New York

It has been erroneously stated that the steamer Majestic which is to bring sightseers to the Hudson-Fulton celebration would leave from this city. The steamer which is one of the finest three-decked steel boats afloat, will leave West 21st street, New York, Friday morning, Oct. 1, at 3:30, and go to Newburg where it will join the fleet and take its passengers down the Hudson to New York, thus affording one of the finest views possible of the great naval arsenal. Tickets for the trip can be obtained at H. H. Jackson's book shop in Main street.

NATURALIZATION PROBLEMS PERPLEX

Difficult Questions are Referred to Washington for Decision.

Many perplexing questions confront the clerks of the Superior Court of this county in the granting of first and second citizenship papers. Some are settled here, but the most difficult are forwarded to Washington, where final decision is made. "Only a few days ago word was received here from Darien that an English applicant there had succeeded in finding his second papers which he thought he had lost. He wanted to be made a voter, and could not without producing his second papers. A systematic search was begun but with no result, only that the papers could not be found. The would be voter got in communication with the local clerks asking them for a duplicate copy of his second papers. They referred him to Washington. Word came back that he would have to explain how he lost the papers, together with a great deal of other red tape which is required before one can be made a citizen nowadays. The man had given up all hope of ever voting, when his wife who had been away for some time, on learning his predicament informed him that she had placed the papers in the family bible. He'll be a voter this fall. Only yesterday a little case of petty graft cropped out. A young English lad whose father was a voter approached a local attorney, stating that he desired to become a citizen. He was told that he would have to go through the same course as any foreigner did in taking out papers. This cost him $15. When he approached the clerk of the court and explained his case he was informed that such a procedure was unnecessary as his father being a citizen of the United States he was also a citizen. Whether the young man got the $15 back is not known.

Weather Indications

(Special from United Press.)
New Haven, Sept. 24.—Forecast: Fair and cooler to-night. Saturday fair.

Cloudy and showery weather has prevailed during the past 24 hours in the eastern portion of the lake region and along the Atlantic coast from Florida to Maine. An area of high pressure, central this morning over Missouri, is producing eddy pleasant weather in the western and central sections. This area will move slowly eastward and produce pleasant weather with low temperature in this vicinity for the next two or three days.
